

Curriculum Vitae

Prof. Dr. Renate Stemmer
Catholic University of Applied Sciences
Mainz, Germany

Professional Activities and Qualifications

- Since 2000: Professor for nursing science and management at the Catholic University of Applied Science Mainz
- Teaching focus and research:
 - Nursing supply for people with dementia
 - Organization of interdisciplinary collaboration in the health care system
 - Professional development of nurses
- 12 years experience as dean and vice dean of Department of Health Care and Nursing at Catholic University of Applied Science Mainz
- Lecturing, publishing, speeches
- Study and dissertation in the field of pedagogics
- 10 years experience in nursing; specialization: intensive care.

Scientific and Professional Engagements

- Chair of the German Society of Nursing Science since eight years.
- Representative of Germany in the European COST Action: Rationing - Missed Nursing care: An international and multidimensional problem.
- Consultant for diverse research programs e.g. of the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research and the German Research Foundation.
- Member of different working groups for the government of Rhineland-Palatinate.

Member of various advisory boards of different national and international conferences.
- Peer Review for different national and international journals with the focus on nursing science.