

Vita

Dr. rer. medic. Nadja Nestler naja.nestler@pmu.ac.at since July 2017	Assistant Professor with research focus: Care of People with Chronic Diseases since April 2017	Head of Department Nursing Development Units at the Institute for Nursing Science and Practice of the Paracelsus Medical Private University, Salzburg since September 2009	research associate at the Institute for Nursing Science and Practice of the Paracelsus Medical University, Salzburg - Member of staff in the completed project "Action Alliance Painfree city Muenster". - Employee in the completed project InTherAKT: Initiative for (drug) therapy safety in geriatric care through cooperation and teamwork - Employee in various projects on the subject of pain 2007 – April 2017	Coordinator in the Society for Qualified Pain Therapy - Certkom e. V.

1993 – 2009	University Clinic of the Employers' Liability Insurance Association - 1993 – 1997 Nurse at a cardiosurgical ICU - 1997 – 2009 Member of the nursing directorate, nursing development staff unit - 2000 – 2007 Pain Nurse and research associate in the research project "pain-free hospital", Department for Pain-Therapy, Department for Anesthesiology, Pain-Therapy and Palliativ Medicine

Other professional Activities since March 2019	Member of the expert working group for the actualization of the National Expert Standard for Pain Management in Nursing Acute and Chronic Pain since 2017	Speaker of the Standing Advisory Board of the German Pain Society since 2016	Member of the editorial board of the professional journal in "Pain and Pain management", publisher Hogrefe since 2016	Member of the Standing Advisory Board of the German Pain Society since 2015	Delegates of the German Society for Nursing Science to update the AWMF S3 guideline on the treatment of acute perioperative and post-traumatic pain

2013	Member of the expert working group for the development of the National Expert Standard for Pain Management in Nursing Chronic Pain
2011	Member of the expert working group for the actualization of the National Expert Standard for Pain Management in Nursing Acute Pain