

Prof. Darja JAROSOVA, PhD. RN.

Darja Jarosova is head of Department of Nursing and Midwifery and vice-dean for foreign affairs of Faculty of Medicine University of Ostrava, where she has been working since 1993. She teaches nursing theory, research methodology, public health, evidence based practice. Her background is nursing, specialization in public health. Her research is currently focused on rationing-missed-unfinished nursing care, clinical guidelines, quality of care, evidence based practice in education. She was/is principal investigator of 12 national and 2 international research projects, and co-coordinator of 7 national and 3 international research projects. She is author and co-author of more than 150 articles in peer-reviewed journals (h-index 8). She is editor-in-chief of peer-reviewed scientific journal Central European Journal of Nursing and Midwifery, which she founded.

Memberships: Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing, Czech Nursing Association, Czech Anthropological Society, Florence Network for Nursing and Midwifery; Branch Councils of four Nursing Doctoral Programs: Jessenius Faculty of Medicine Comenius University Martin (Slovakia), Faculty of Health Sciences Palacky University Olomouc, Faculty of Health and Social Sciences University of South Bohemia České Budějovice, Faculty of Medicine of University of Ostrava (president); Scientific Councils of five faculties / universities: Faculty of Medicine of University of Ostrava, Faculty of Social Studies of University of Ostrava, South Bohemia University České Budějovice, Trnava University (Slovakia), Faculty of Health of Catholic University Ružomberok (Slovakia); Editorial boards / International advisory boards of six journals: Nurse Education in Practice, Central European Journal of Nursing and Midwifery, Nursing in the 21st Century, Nursing: theory, research, education, Kontakt, Profese online.